FUND OBJECTIVE

The Kudala Wealth Honey Badger is multi-asset, multi-strategy Actively Managed Certificate (AMC) designed with the objective of giving the investor the highest probability of staying invested, whilst delivering a return of South African CPI + 3%. The note consists of a selection of Exchange Traded Funds, selected as a combination with a high probability of achieving the return objective, whilst protecting the portfolio from large downside movements in the market.

INVESTOR PROFILE

The strategy is suitable for an investor with a minimum time horizon of three years, seeking to protect and grow their wealth over the respective period. The strategy can be seen as a core holding to wholistic investment strategies.

RISK PROFILE (Moderate)

It is expected that portfolio drawdowns and volatility will be of a moderate nature, i.e. less than general equity, however it is possible that capital losses will occur over short to medium time periods.
