If the Market Maker is unable to maintain reasonable Bid Prices and/or reasonable Ask Prices based on the iRPV only, the Issuer will publish the Reference Portfolio Composition File of the Reference Portfolio of the AMCs on the Issuer's website. Circumstances when the JSE may relieve the Market Maker from its responsibility to maintain reasonable Bid Prices and reasonable Ask Prices as contemplated above until the issue is resolved include, but are not limited to, when there are no Bid prices and/or Ask Prices in the market or markets in which the relevant Reference Components of the Reference Portfolio of the AMCs are traded or to be traded, when in the opinion of the Calculation Agent the AMCs can be reasonably shown to have no value, when an issuance of the AMCs is sold out, the Market Maker is experiencing technical difficulties, and/or a Reference Portfolio Loss Event has occurred. The JSE may, in its sole discretion, determine that the Issuer and its Market Maker be relieved of this responsibility for a specific period during the term of the AMCs or for a specific issuance of the AMCs.

(C) OPTIONAL EARLY REDEMPTION OF THE AMCs BY THE HOLDER OF THE AMCs

1. If an existing holder of the AMCs wishes to redeem the AMCs prior to the scheduled Maturity Date (or if applicable, the extended Maturity Date) of the AMCs, such holder may approach the Issuer only on an Exchange Business Day (which is not a Disrupted Day) to buy the AMCs back from the relevant holder (such day the Optional Early Redemption Request Date).
2. Provided that in the reasonable opinion of the Calculation Agent normal market conditions are prevailing and provided that the relevant Exchange Business Day is not a Disrupted Day, the Issuer will provide the relevant holder with the Early Redemption Final RPV, which was provided to the Issuer by the Market Maker or the Calculation Agent. The Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable will determine the relevant Early Redemption Date as well as the Final Valuation Date preceding such Early Redemption Date. If the Final Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of the relevant Reference Components of the Reference Portfolio of the AMCs, the redemption of the AMCs will be postponed until the next Exchange Business Day that is not a Disrupted Day, provided that if the next eight Scheduled Trading Days are all Disrupted Days, the Calculation Agent will deem the eighth Scheduled Trading Day (which is a Disrupted Day), not to be a Disrupted Day, but a valid Final Valuation Date. If the Final Valuation Date is postponed as set out in this paragraph the Optional Early Redemption Date will be postponed to a date which falls one Settlement Cycle of the Reference Components of the Reference Portfolio of the AMCs which is to be redeemed early after the Final Valuation Date.
3. On a valid Optional Early Redemption Request Date, the Issuer will instruct the Calculation Agent to determine, in conjunction with the Reference Portfolio Manager, the relevant Early Redemption Value of the AMCs to be redeemed, and to deduct all the costs and expenses of the Reference Portfolio Manager and/or the Issuer occasioned by the early redemption of the relevant AMCs and provide the Issuer with an Early Redemption Final RPV. Subject to the Non-Recourse Provisions below, the Issuer will pay an amount equal to the Early Redemption Final RPV to the relevant holder of the AMCs that had been redeemed when received by the Issuer. The settlement date of this amount will be the last day following the last Settlement Cycle of the Reference Component of the Reference

Portfolio that had to be sold or unwound following the relevant early redemption of the relevant AMCs.

(D) OPTIONAL EARLY REDEMPTION OF THE AMCs BY THE ISSUER OF THE AMCs

1. If the Issuer of the AMCs wishes to redeem the AMCs prior to the scheduled Maturity Date (or if applicable the extended Maturity Date) of the AMCs, the Issuer may give notice to all holders of the AMCs that it intends to buy the AMCs back from all the holders of the AMCs.
2. In its notice, the Issuer will designate the Optional Early Redemption Date applicable to the early redemption of the AMCs. The Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, will determine the Final Valuation Date related to this Optional Early Redemption Date.
3. Provided that in the reasonable opinion of the Calculation Agent normal market conditions are prevailing and provided that the relevant Final Valuation Date is an Exchange Business Day and is not a Disrupted Day, the Issuer will provide the holder with a Bid Price, which was provided to the Issuer by the Market Maker. If the Final Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of the relevant Reference Components of the Reference Portfolio of the AMCs, the redemption of the AMCs will be postponed until the next Exchange Business Day that is not a Disrupted Day, provided that if the next eight Scheduled Trading Days are all Disrupted Days, the Calculation Agent will deem the eighth Scheduled Trading Day (which is a Disrupted Day), not to be a Disrupted Day, but a valid Final Valuation Date. If the Final Valuation Date is postponed as set out in this paragraph the Optional Early Redemption Date will be postponed to a date which falls one Settlement Cycle of the Reference Components of the Reference Portfolio of the AMCs which is to be redeemed early after the Final Valuation Date.

(E) MANDATORY EARLY REDEMPTION OF THE AMCs BY THE ISSUER

1. If in respect of the AMCs a Mandatory Early Redemption Event occurs and is continuing, the Issuer must designate an Early Redemption Date in respect of the AMCs and the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, must forthwith determine the Final Valuation Date preceding the Early Redemption Date.
2. On the relevant Final Valuation Date, the Calculation Agent will determine and calculate the Early Redemption Final RPV of the AMCs to be mandatorily redeemed early.
3. Subject to the Non-Recourse Provisions below, the Issuer will pay an amount equal to the relevant Early Redemption Final RPV to the holder of the AMCs on the Early Redemption Date.

(F) FINAL REDEMPTION OF THE AMCs

1. In respect of the AMCs, on the Final Valuation Date of the relevant Reference Components comprising the Reference Portfolio of the AMCs, which will always fall on a date which is one Settlement Cycle of the relevant Reference Components preceding the Maturity Date of the AMCs, and, provided that in the reasonable opinion of the Calculation Agent normal market conditions are prevailing and provided that the relevant Final Valuation Date is an Exchange Business Day and is not a Disrupted Day, the Calculation Agent will determine the Final RPV of the AMCs.

2. Subject to any settlement disruptions and, if applicable, any currency settlement disruptions, and subject to the non-recourse provisions and provided the Issuer receives payment of the redemption proceeds of its Hedge Positions, the Issuer will pay an amount equal to the Final RPV as the Final Redemption Amount of the AMCs to the holder of the AMCs on the Maturity Date of the AMCs.
3. If any settlement disruptions and, if applicable, any currency settlement disruptions, occur and continue in respect of the Maturity Date of the AMCs, the Issuer will pay the Final Redemption Amount as soon as commercially reasonable possible always acting in good faith and in the interests of the holder of the AMCs.

(G) NON-RECOURSE PROVISIONS

1. The Issuer of the AMCs has under all circumstances, whether on the Maturity Date of the AMCs or, if applicable, on the Early Redemption Date of the AMCs, no obligation to pay an amount equal to the relevant Final RPV, to holders of the AMCs unless the Issuer has received the redemption amounts from the sale or the unwinding, as applicable, of its Hedge Positions in respect of or related to the Reference Components comprising the Reference Portfolio of the AMCs on or before the relevant date on which payment is due and payable to the holder of the AMCs. The holders of the AMCs will be subject to the same settlement disruption and payment disruption event applicable to the relevant Reference Components that a physical holder of such Reference Components in the general market would be subject to.
2. If the Issuer of the AMCs has acquired and is holding assets as its Hedge Positions in respect of the Reference Components of the Reference Portfolio, the Issuer will not sell or pledge such assets comprising the Reference Components of the Reference Portfolio of the AMCs.
3. The Issuer will always pay without material delay any amounts which it receives in respect of the Reference Components to the Money Account of the Reference Portfolio, which amount will be included as the Money Reference Component of the Reference Portfolio. If for whatever reason there is any material delay in any payment contemplated above, the Money will be held by the Issuer for the benefit of the holders of the AMCs and all interest that accrues to such Money will also be for the benefit of the holders of the AMCs. The Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate of the Reference Portfolio Manager may require the Reference Portfolio Manager to reinvest some Money paid by the Issuer into the bank account. All amounts which are reinvested by the Reference Portfolio Manager will be reinvested for the eventual benefit of the holders of the AMCs. It is contemplated by the Issuer, the holders of the AMCs, and the Reference Portfolio Manager, that the Issuer will not receive any payment directly, but instead any amounts received will without material delay be redeployed in accordance with the investment instructions contained in the Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate of the Reference Portfolio Manager for the benefit of the holders of the AMCs. Any Money that is not reinvested without material delay will earn interest in the Money Account managed by the Reference Portfolio Manager and the interest will accrue for the benefit of the holders of the AMCs. Such interest will also be reinvested by the Reference Portfolio Manager for the ultimate benefit of the holders of the AMCs.

4. Holders of the AMCs must be aware that the Issuer will be maintaining its Hedge Positions in connection with the Reference Components of the Reference Portfolio for the term of the AMCs or at least until the date on which the AMCs may be redeemed early for whatever reason. Therefore, the Issuer will (a) maintain its Hedge Positions in connection with the relevant Reference Components, and (b) will not pledge, assign, or otherwise encumber its rights under the Hedge Positions or the relevant Reference Components, in each case for the full term of the AMCs or until the date on which the AMCs are redeemed early for whatever reason.
5. The Issuer will not agree to any optional early unwind, cancellation, termination, or redemption of the AMCs that is not envisaged in this Annex or under the terms of the AMCs and that is described in the Programme Memorandum, without a corresponding early unwind, cancellation, or other similar termination of the corresponding relevant Hedge Positions of the Issuer in connection with the Reference Components comprising the Reference Portfolio. Upon any early redemption as defined and contemplated above, the Issuer will not make any payment to the holders of the AMCs in respect of such early redemption until the Issuer has received the relevant redemption amounts from the sale of its relevant Hedge Positions in connection with the relevant Reference Components in respect of the unwind, cancellation, or other similar termination of the corresponding relevant Hedge Positions of the Issuer in connection with the relevant Reference Components comprising the Reference Portfolio at the time of such early redemption.

(H) THE REFERENCE PORTFOLIO MANAGER MUST ACT IN ACCORDANCE WITH ITS REFERENCE PORTFOLIO INVESTMENT MANDATE.

1. In respect of the AMCs, the Issuer includes the Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate in the Pricing Supplement of the AMCs. The Issuer assumes that the holders of the AMCs have read and understood the Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate.
2. The Reference Portfolio Manager, acting as mandatary of the holders of the AMCs, must comply with the provisions of the Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate, the Pricing Supplement and the AMC Listings Requirements and the compliance department or business unit of the Reference Portfolio Manager must monitor compliance to all these provisions.

(I) CONSEQUENCES OF SOME SPECIFIC ADDITIONAL DISRUPTION EVENTS

1. The following Additional Disruption Events apply to the AMC: (i) Change in Law, (ii) Hedging Disruption, (iii) Increased Cost of Hedging, (iv) Increased Cost of Borrowing, (v) Loss of Borrowed Reference Component and/or (vi) Insolvency Filing.
2. If an Additional Disruption Event occurs, the Issuer in its sole and absolute discretion may take the action described in (a) or (b) below:

- (a) require the Calculation Agent to determine the appropriate adjustment, if any, to be made to any of the terms of the Terms and Conditions and/or the Pricing Supplement to account for the Additional Disruption Event and determine the effective date of that adjustment, or
 - (b) give notice to holders of the AMCs in accordance with General Condition 16 (Notices) and redeem all, but not some only, of the AMCs, such AMCs being redeemed at the Early Redemption Amount.
3. Upon the occurrence of an Additional Disruption Event, the Issuer will give notice as soon as practicable to the Noteholders in accordance with General Condition 16 (Notices), stating the occurrence of the relevant Additional Disruption Event giving details thereof and the action proposed to be taken in relation thereto provided that any failure to give, or non-receipt of, such notice will not affect the validity of the Additional Disruption Event or the action taken in relation thereto.

(J) SETTLEMENT DISRUPTION EVENT

If, prior to the payment of the proceeds of the AMCs in accordance with this Pricing Supplement, a Settlement Disruption Event is subsisting, then the Maturity Date in respect of the AMCs will be postponed until the next Settlement Business Day on which no Settlement Disruption Event is subsisting and notice thereof will be given to the relevant holders of the AMCs, in accordance with General Condition 16 (Notices). A holder of the AMCs may not be entitled to any payment, whether of interest or otherwise, on the AMCs because of any delay in the payment of the maturity proceeds pursuant to this condition. Where payment of the maturity proceeds has been postponed as provided in this condition, the Issuer will not be in breach of this Pricing Supplement or the Terms and Conditions and no liability in respect thereof will attach to the Issuer.

(K) OPTION TO VARY SETTLEMENT

The Issuer may vary settlement in respect of the AMCs and the Issuer may at its sole and unfettered discretion in respect of the AMCs elect not to pay the relevant holders of the AMCs the Redemption Amount, but, in lieu thereof, deliver or procure delivery of the Reference Components comprising the Reference Portfolio at the relevant time (Physical Settlement). Notification of such election will be given to Noteholders in accordance with General Condition 16 (Notices). In instances where Physical Settlement is contemplated, the particulars of the Physical Settlement process will be as per the Equity Annex.

(L) FUTURES PRICE VALUATION

If some of the Reference Components are Listed Derivative Instruments Futures Price Valuation may be applied in the valuation of those Reference Components for purposes of the determination and calculation of the iRPV and/or the RPV and the amendments as stipulated in the Equity Linked Conditions will apply accordingly.

(M) LEGAL OWNERSHIP AND VOTING POWER

- 1. A holder of the AMCs does not have legal, registered, or beneficial ownership of any Security contained in the Reference Portfolio. If the Issuer purchases and holds the relevant Security as a Hedge Position, the Issuer will be the legal, registered, and beneficial owner of the relevant Security and the holder of the AMCs will

	therefore not be the legal, registered, or beneficial owner of the relevant Security. 2. (e) The Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate:	1. The Reference Portfolio Manager 1.1. The Reference Portfolio Manager is High Street Asset Management Proprietary Limited. 1.2. Please note that the Reference Portfolio Manager may not only act as Reference Portfolio Manager in respect of the Reference Portfolio, as mandatary of the holders of this set of AMCs, but may at the same time act as asset manager or financial consultant to the holders of this set of AMCs, which may create potential conflicts between the interests of the holders of the AMCs and the interests of the Reference Portfolio Manager when acting in respect of the Reference Portfolio. The Reference Portfolio Manager has implemented the necessary measures required to mitigate such potential conflict of interest. 2. Reference Portfolio Description Document 2.1. The name of this set of AMCs is the High Street Wealth Warriors Portfolio. 2.2. The Money Component referred to above will accrue interest at the prevailing reference rate (“the Reference Interest Rate”), as described in this Pricing Supplement. 2.7. The Reference Portfolio Manager has created the Reference Portfolio by selecting the initial Reference Components on the Issue Date of this set of AMCs. The notional value of each AMC (“the Initial AMC Issue Price”) is ZAR1 000.00 per AMC on the Issue Date. 2.8. The Reference Portfolio Manager is responsible for adjusting the composition of the Reference Portfolio from time to time in accordance with this mandate (any such adjustment a “Reference Portfolio Adjustment”). Certain limitations apply as to the composition of the Reference Portfolio and the Reference Portfolio Adjustments to be made from time to time as more fully specified in this mandate. 2.9. The Reference Portfolio Value (Initial RPV, iRPV, and Final RPV) is calculated in the Reference Portfolio Currency, net of fees, and costs associated with the creation, maintenance, and management of the Reference Portfolio, as described below. 2.10. The Calculation Agent may adjust the composition of the Reference Portfolio from time to time to account for corporate actions, minus any withholding taxes, and other similar events which may occur in respect of the Reference Components of the Reference Portfolio. 3. Reference Portfolio Investment Universes and investment restrictions

	3.1. The Reference Portfolio, whose composition may vary from time to time, is actively managed by the Reference Portfolio Manager and represents a notional investment in the Reference Portfolio Components as described in more detail in the following paragraphs. 3.2. The Reference Portfolio Manager may not select any additional securities, assets, exposures, contracts, or instruments for inclusion in the Reference Portfolio apart from the Reference Components that are part of the Investment Universes described below. 3.3. The Reference Portfolio Manager may select any securities, assets, exposures, contracts, or instruments from the Investment Universes for inclusion in the Reference Portfolio (with such securities, assets, exposures, contracts, or instruments becoming Securities after inclusion in the Reference Portfolio) in its reasonable discretion pursuant and subject to the provisions contained in this document. 3.4. 3.5.3.	The Reference Portfolio Manager may in its sole and absolute discretion select any Eligible ET Security as a Reference Component, subject to the provisions contained in this Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate. The Issuer or the Calculation Agent may reject the inclusion of any ET Security based on any applicable rules, regulations, and internal or external restrictions according to the provisions of this Pricing Supplement.

3.7.1.	The notional Reference Portfolio must also contain a Money Component as a Reference Portfolio Component, which represents a notional holding of an amount of Money denominated in the Reference Portfolio Currency and accruing interest at the prevailing reference rate (“the Reference Rate”).
3.7.2.	The Reference Rate is observed on every Business Day and will be equal to the South Africa Rand Overnight Deposit Rate (Bloomberg page: RAONON <Index>) (“the Relevant Screen Page”).
3.7.3.	If the Relevant Screen Page is not available, the Reference Rate will be the equivalent rate as displayed on the corresponding page of another financial information service. 4.1.2.	The sum of the weights of all Reference Components, other than the Money Component, is capped at a maximum of 95% (“the Leverage Threshold”) at all times during the lifetime of the Reference Portfolio of the AMC. In case the sum of the weights of all Reference Components exceeds the Leverage Threshold, the Issuer or the Calculation Agent may notionally

	sell Reference Components at its reasonable discretion until the sum of the weights of all Reference Components, excluding the Money Component, is smaller than or equal to 95% of the value of the Reference Portfolio. In respect of such notional sales of such Reference Components, a notional credit (which may be equal to zero) will be made to the Money Component corresponding to the notional net disposal value (which may be equal to zero) of such Reference Components with effect from the date of the notional sale of the relevant Reference Components. 4.1.3. The Reference Portfolio Manager is solely responsible and solely bears the legal duty to ensure that the Reference Portfolio complies with the Investment Restrictions specified above in this Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate. The Issuer of the AMCs does not have any legal duty or any other responsibility to monitor or to ensure compliance by the Reference Portfolio Manager with the above guidelines and with this Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate. 6. Initial Composition of the Reference Portfolio 6.1. The Reference Portfolio will be created on the Issue Date of the AMCs with an opening value of ZAR100 000 000. 	7. Adjustment of the Reference Portfolio 7.1. An Adjustment may be initiated by the Reference Portfolio Manager on any Exchange Business Day following the initial Valuation Date, effective as soon as reasonably practicable, as determined by the Calculation Agent in a commercially reasonable manner (such day, a "Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date"), subject to the occurrence of any Market Disruption Event in respect of such Reference Components on the relevant Exchange Business Day.
(f) Additional Particulars to the Mandate:	Not Applicable
(i) The investment universe of eligible securities which may be Components of the Reference Portfolio:	See the Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate above.
(ii) The benchmark against which the return on the Reference Portfolio is measured:	The iShares MSCI World Index ETF.
(iii) The investment theme and the applicable sectors that the Reference Portfolio Manager may invest in:	The majority of the Reference Portfolio's Reference Components will comprise the constituent components of the iShares MSCI World Index ETF, however the Reference Portfolio Manager may use its discretion to invest in Reference Components not included in the iShares MSCI World Index ETF, to take advantage of specific investment opportunities. The iShares MSCI World Index ETF seeks to track the investment results of an underlying index, the MSCI World Index composed of developed market equities. The underlying index is designed to measure the performance of equity securities in the top 85% of equity market capitalisation, as calculated by the index provider, in certain developed market countries. The underlying index may include large-, mid- or small capitalisation companies. Constituents of the underlying index primarily include financials, healthcare, and information technology companies. The constituents of the underlying index, and the degree to which these components represent certain industries, are likely to change over time. comprising developed market equity securities. The Reference Portfolio does not have any specific industry or market focus and may in its sole discretion obtain exposure to one or more different industry sectors or markets. The investment process utilises various data sources (including, but not limited to: Bloomberg Professional Terminal, Statista Premium Subscription, Similar Web and other paid industry research reports) on topics such as global economic conditions, asset class valuations, and political and social trends to identify trending changes in both behaviour and the environment within the global economy. Changes are driven predominantly, but not exclusively, by innovation and technological advancement and their effects on economic and social behaviour. A particular focus is placed on disruptive changes to conventional industries and their resulting effect on established competitive forces. Identified trending changes are analysed and assessed to determine which sectors, subsectors and individual securities within the global economy are most probable to benefit from their persistence and/or acceleration. Individual securities are selected on a relative basis (that is, their valuation relative to the market) from

	within sectors and subsectors expected to benefit from identified trending changes using fundamental criteria (such as above-market growth rates of revenue and/or earnings, dominant market position leading to sustainable profit margins, limited use of balance sheet leverage and highly competent leadership). The investment strategy of the Reference Portfolio Manager Fund is classified as 'aggressive' due to the ability of the Reference Portfolio Manager to adopt a narrow range of sector focus, notwithstanding the global focus applied to the Reference Portfolio. It is anticipated that large positions may be allocated by the Reference Portfolio Manager into investments with a higher perceived surety of outcome, as determined by the Reference Portfolio Manager. Concentrated holdings in correlated sectors may lead to short-term volatility in the Reference Portfolio.
(g) Amendments to the Mandate:	If the Reference Portfolio Manager makes any changes to the Reference Portfolio Investment Mandate above the provisions of paragraphs 19.22 and 19.23(b)(i) of the JSE Listings Requirements in relation to approval from holders of this set of AMCs and the JSE Limited will apply.
(h) The costs applicable to the AMCs of this set of AMCs:	The fees and costs associated with the creation, maintenance, and management of the Reference Portfolio, the costs and expenses associated with the Hedge Positions, and the cost and expenses associated with the purchasing and holding of this set of AMCs are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
